- 7. Community Safety in Longstanton
Due to austerity there is a noticeable lack of police presence in the village. Instances of theft, distraction burglaries, anti-social behaviour have been experienced in the village over the last year. Residents have raised concerns about potential 'adults at risk', parking issues, speeding, littering, etc.

The Parish Council will outline a number of potential schemes for community involvement and needs your input to decide if the Parish Council and our community should consider a scheme or schemes to help the community feel safer.
Should the Parish Council and our community consider a scheme or schemes to help the community feel safer?
- 8. Open Forum

A short break for refreshments will be called during the meeting at a convenient time.
